TRADITION
NEVER
GRADUATES

Proctor Free Library

Thank you,
Mrs.
Rodolffy, for your tireless and sincere support
of the students and staff as our principal for the past three years.

PROCTOR HIGH SCHOOL

Because of Proctor's close-knit sense, traditions are treasured in our school community. Traditions connect students to each other as well as to the alumni and the community. Whether they're whimsical or meaningful, keeping our traditions alive helps to preserve the culture we value so much here at PHS.

TRADITION NEVER GRADUATES

I AM A PROMISE

I am a promise
I am a possibility
I am a promise
With a capital P
I am a great big bundle of potentiality
And I am learning
To find my voice
And I am trying
To make the right choice
I am a promise to be anything I can be
I can go anywhere that I want to go
I can be anything that I want to be
I can climb the high mountain
I can cross the wide sea
I am a great big promise you see!
I am a promise
I am a possibility
I am a promise
With a capital P
I am a great big bundle of potentiality
And I am learning to find my voice
And I am trying to make the right choice
I am a promise to be anything that I can be—Anything that I can be!

UNITED MOTTS OF AMERICA

Sprinting through an alley to join a protest - Grace

Grace, if you were my Chinese daughter you would have to take care of me in my old age.

My favorite animal is a pangolin. It seems like a good animal to ride into battle.

When he gave us that "pep talk" in Puerto Rico. - Grace

These cheap Chinese doors.

When his pitterbug went off in the YMUN assembly. - Grace

"Obama is a handsome man."

"Child labor has it's advantages."

"Don't you wish we were in Puerto Rico still?"

"Alexis, get off your phone!"

Johnny Depp is kind of greasy but in an attractive way.

"Never trust men."

YMUN is an expensive dating service.

Puerto Rico Emma

Going to Salem, Massachusetts. - Eben

"Erica, you are a natural born communist."

"I'm not used to teaching this class (Street Law) to freshmen, I feel like I'm watching a movie with my parents and an awkward scene comes on."

Us going on a hike and as we got close to the top, Mott sprinting, shoving Grace, and going past her. - Kiersten

"This is why only I can sit on desks." - Kiersten

Immediately collapsed under him and then saying "This is why only I can sit on desks." - Kiersten

Him telling us not to sit on desks, then sitting on one and it immediately collapsed under him and then saying "This is why only I can sit on desks." - Kiersten

The seniors are dedicating this yearbook to Mr. Mott because he has been an endless supporter for our class and one of our favorite teachers. As a class we will miss him always being there to make us laugh, hassling us about our homework in the halls, telling us endless stories about his life, discussing politics and always predicting election results wrong, his wild enthusiasm for history which always makes each topic enjoyable, his lack of technology knowledge, and that fact he never looks like he knows what's going on!

Derrek J. Almond

"They said I would be nothing,
now they always say congratulations."

-Post Malone

I remember scoring my first varsity goal in the State Championship and winning three basketball championships and having some of the funniest conversations at lunch.

I remember fending off Black River to hang on to The Jug 1-1.

Jacob P. Bartlett

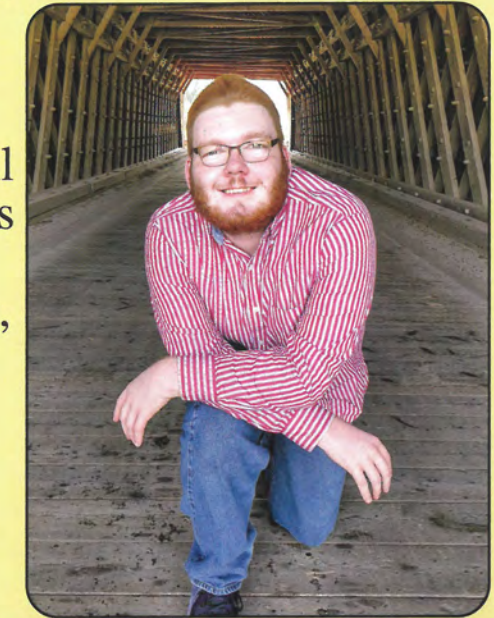

"If you ain't first,
you're last."

-Ricky Bobby

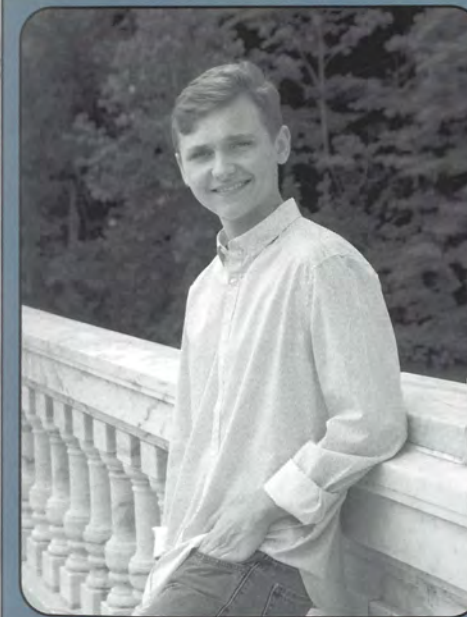

Ryan T. Burgoyne

"Please don't confuse my point of view with cynicism;
the real cynics are the ones who tell you everything is going to be alright. I am a personal optimist but a skeptic about all else. What may sound like anger is really nothing more than sympathetic contempt."

-George Carlin

Visiting with Edwin in Puerto Rico, meeting the Puerto Rican Governor and roaming around his pristine home.
Realizing what true jealousy felt like with Mr. Lawrence's mustache, finding out what a true friend is with Mrs. Garcia. Knowing Ms. Russo would always listen to me, serious topic or not, and that I could relate well to her. Having Mrs. Digan there always providing ample leniency, and
Mr. Mott- great classes, great teaching, great personality, and overall great dude- "How's your day been?"

Tyler Carrington

"Just send it."

Hiding from the trooper with
CP, AG, NG, NS.

Emilee Anne Dupuis

"You'll have that on those big jobs."
- Dad, Grandpa Jerry

Half Apps w/ Lex & Fish @ Applebees. Swimming w/ Lex & Fish. The day Ms. Marcus cried during the Rock Climbing workout. Rock Climbing 7-12. Doing "The Nich" in Rock Climbing. "Hey, Lex, does a bear poop in the woods?" The never-ending Walmart adventures w/ Fish & Lex. "Yoga Master."

Every day with Alexis, somehow getting into trouble. Going to prom with Justyn. Chin-flipping wars w/ Jus & Lex. Every day with Andersen & Livea (I love you guys!). Tapestry w/ Ms. Gilman. Chemistry w/ Alexis and Ms. Gilman. (Thank you, Gilly!) Lunch in Phyllis' room. When Mrs. Wehof bought Fischer and I Ben & Jerry's and a T-shirt for our last competition of the season. Alexis and I giving Mrs. Trombetta & Ms. H. sass every day.

Cody James Lafayette

"Treat yo self."
- Tom Haverford

Memories I have in the short time at Proctor was soccer season 2k17. Stranded for 3 hours in the middle of nowhere after a game. New people. Gym with DB, JV, NG, JP, and JM. Always competitive in gym. Spending senior year with KW. Street Law with Mott. Trial with GT. Astronomy with KW and GT and JV. Hoco bonfire. Prom 2k17.

Talking with Ms. Gilman about various movies, tv shows, and food/recipes. I would recommend some movies/tv shows for her to watch and she would share some good recipes.

Eben David Guyette

"There's nothing you can do that can't be done. Nothing you can sing that can't be sung. Nothing you can say, but you can learn how to play the game. It's easy; all you need is love." - The Beatles

Erica Therese May

"I am 100% certain that I am 0% sure of what I am going to do."

Meredith Linette Parker

"I am ready to face any challenge that might be foolish enough to face me."

~Dwight Schrute

Always getting into some sort of trouble with my friends. Setting off the elevator alarm with Arielle and Justyn. Always being in Mrs. Currao's office. Isabel always hugging me when I'm sad, Mr. Mott calling me a squirrel for walking out of his class.

Alexis Lee Peer

"Although no one can go back and make a brand new start, anyone can start from now and make a brand new ending."

~ Carl Bard

Puerto Rico, Soccer State Championships, YMUN, Anatomy, Salem (falling apart), boat papis, Winter Carnivals, junior year, proms, Bitties, Stinkmobile, Girls State, Mr. Johnstone, Science Squad, Shrek in the parade, Greg Mott quotes, middle school bus rides w/ EM, scavenger hunts, trampoline talks. ~Andy Dwyer

Keely Stratton-Pockette

"Only listen to fortune cookie, disregard all other fortune telling units."
- Fortune Cookie

The various field trips, college tours, and class fundraisers we participated in over the years, the trip to Puerto Rico and everything that happened in it, that eagle on the mural in the science wing (seriously, look at it), doing science experiments, eating a Twinkie for the first time during a Winter Carnival eating contest (I've hated them ever since), Spring Carnival, setting up prom, and the great fly invasion of '16.

When Alexis, Arielle, and I went in the elevator in 10th grade and it made an alarm sound and we all ran out and tripped over each other running in different directions.

Justyn Louis Suarez

A wise man once said "Justyn is great."
-Justyn Suarez 2017

Yearly Edition

- Since 1947 -

Class of 2018 Wills

I, Derek, leave Nate Greb all the ranch dressing in the world and Conner McKearin the striker spot.

I, Jacob, leave my goalkeeping abilities to Rachel. I leave my ideas on fashion to Joe Valerio, in hopes he will some day step out of the sweatpants at school.

I, Ryan, leave my writing utensil collection to Isabel, my ability to be obedient, to not use my electronic device all the live-long day, to not care about other people's actions toward others, and to get along with respect, and get to know teachers on a somewhat personal level. No one in the building can compare to how amazing they are!

I, Tyler, leave Solomon Parker the treasure. Keep it safe my friend.

I, Emilee, leave a Get Out of Jail Free pass to Sarah C., Mrs. Trombetta's favorite student to Timmy, the Bat of Ellis and the most amazing summer to Lillian. My parking spot to Amanda G., and the ability to find anything hysterical to the triplets.

I, Eben, leave Ms. (Christy) Papandrea my eternal gratitude for giving me advice on how to be a successful music education major at Castleton University, and future music teacher.

I, Cody, leave IF 2 touch in soccer, DB a passing touchdown, JV a scare in Astronomy, NG a header, JP a run, and GP a tackle.

I, Erica, leave AR a ride home, LT someone to rant with, JM someone to make eye contact with, GM a trip to Puerto Rico, and AD a bag of chocolate.

I, Arielle, leave GP someone to fight with, SP soccer senior, JPI squats, DBu buck, triplets a loyal friend, JT white socks, AT #2 for soccer, and last but not least, DT a pie in the face

I, Meredith, leave GP a hard time, JP a good boy, TG and CC a hand to hold during the National Anthem, AD my mess and several hours after school, Mr. Mott a trip to Puerto Rico & someone to mess with, Varsity Lady Phantoms my love and best of luck in the future years.

I, Alexis, leave Chyenne G. my space in Mrs. Currao's office. Leave my inability to focus in room 212 with Mrs. Trombetta and Ms. Gilman. I leave my sass I have to Ms. Hagenbarth to Sarah C. Leave everything for my brother Timmy.

I, Emma, leave TG a confession and a compliment, AA a place to leave all of your water bottles and a bus buddy, CC a Harry Styles song analysis and a phat nut, ML "One more!" and an unwanted FaceTime, GM a Hershey chocolate, SM a cry/rant session, AD a game night and a shock bracelet, PC a deep convo, MP a friend, QD the #19 jersey, and the Lady Phantoms underclassmen a fictional murderer.

I, Keely, leave Audrey Tilden all those library books I forgot to return, Mrs. Digan and Ms. Marcus the ability to stop by and steal MY tea from me, my senior year locker to whoever is lucky enough to get it and my junior year locker to whoever is unlucky enough, all my teachers the homework I owe them, all the teachers that aren't mine, homework that I still probably owe them, my class freedom from the most awkward and nostalgic years of your lives, and everybody the best of luck.

I, Justyn, leave all my Ms. Kennedy pencils to Jacob Perkins.

I, Grace, leave VG "Grayson", LT an outfit to approve, CG a ride home, AD a gluten-free buddy, SM a good cry, GM a protest to join, the Lady Phantom underclassmen "The Shookening", JP "Good Boy", KS, SW, and JR confidence on the field, and SP a great senior year.

I, Isabel, leave RS daylight, noodles "SJ", sleepovers, pickles, a ride ride home from school, a punch (; hugs, a willy wop, a GPS, nugs, "OoooOoooOooHhhhHhh, yeEeaAaahHhh", a best friend <3. JV: GO BUDDY! Success for the rest of high school, a ride to school, a family group-chat text, hand shake for after games, luck for all sports (even though you won't need it), someone to watch cooking shows with, a belt, the keys...& I guess the car too, a best friend <3. MF: "Guys, I'm scared...", a bunch more goals, a left foot, a left hand, a car jam-sesh to "There's Nothing Holding Me Back". AR: Strikes!

I, Kiersten, leave someone to sing to MF. KS someone to talk to during soccer season. I leave SP my makeup. A compliment to CC. A sarcastic remark to AA. A high five to LT. I leave someone to do AD's hair and makeup. I leave someone for GM to pick on.

Prophecies

Derek moves away and is noticed for his soccer playing ability by a team in Spain. He soon becomes one of the most famous soccer players in the world and scores the winning goal for the USA in the World Cup. The newspapers proclaim that his sister could have done it better.

Jake leaves to start his own fashion company and moves into a penthouse. He soon invents a type of shampoo that keeps hair permanently platinum blonde and styled perfectly.

Ryan invents a new type of shoe to ensure he never sprains his ankle again.

Tyler moves to Los Angeles and starts his own music production company. He kick-starts the careers of many up-and-coming rappers and soon realizes he has a natural rap talent as well. He becomes famous under the name "Lil Grump."

Emilee after marrying her high school sweetheart, Emilee achieves her dream of one day owning the McDonalds franchise and having twins. Continuing with the odd names in the families, she named them French and Fry.

Eben becomes the captain of his own ship and has his own drum line always on board for the crew members.

Cody becomes chief of the canine unit, owns 12 dogs and the beard is as good as ever. With all his life career goals attained, he decides to finally live out his dream and go to a Seahawks home game and after meeting everyone on the team, they decide to draft Cody. He is successful as both an NFL football player and a cop.

Erica marries Hugh Jackman. The two have many homes in London, Paris, and Australia, each containing at least 15 cats. She gives Arielle a ride to work every day.

Arielle lives in Erica's basement without her knowing. She spends her days writing episodes for Spongebob Squarepants.

Meredith designs cakes and houses alongside her husband and 23 kids. She soon goes on to build and then live in the largest cake house in the world, which is toured every day by celebrities like Taylor Swift.

Alexis marries a state trooper and never gets a ticket again.

Emma becomes the most popular comedian, the female Kevin Hart, and also stars on SNL.

Keely achieves all her goals by the age of 25 and has over 20 cats, she makes enough money to buy all the computer games she could ever want.

Justyn finally learns to speak Spanish so he can attend family reunions.

Grace attends college, only to realize her true passions are eating candy and watching Netflix. She becomes the modern-day gluten-free Willy Wonka and creates a Netflix original series based on her experiences.

Isabel founded many humanitarian enterprises which earned her fame, the Nobel Peace Prize, and made her a millionaire.

Kiersten becomes co-partners with Kylie Jenner making K&K cosmetics, Kiersten invents a new kind of makeup and makes so much money she doesn't know what to do with it all. She donates $1,000,000,000 to dog shelters all around the U.S. and she adopts 12 dogs of her own.

"Anthony Buehler is very helpful to the ninth graders. Mr. Mott and Ms. Marcus are fun teachers." ~Janaya R.

Ms. Papandrea's music class always helps me get away from the craziness of school. She helps me learn saxophone, guitar, and helps me sing better." ~Zach D.

"Mrs. Plant is awesome, cool, and helpful." ~Jaikob T.

"Both of the Papandrea's are great. 'Reading Papandrea' is very understanding. She's cool and not a strict teacher. 'Music Papandrea' made learning the ukulele fun and she lets us pick our own songs." ~Cameron P.

"I think Ms. Marcus is awesome because she's young and she can relate to us." ~Nick B.

"Ms. Pritchard is always nice and encouraging. She gets everyone to do their best and to try out different things." ~T.J. Pecor

"Mr. Mott is the best for advice on life. His stories are the best. Oh, and ask him about Trump." ~Sarah C.

"Spanish is a difficult subject for some students and I feel like Señor Svoboda's way of teaching it makes it easier to understand the language." ~Leah M.

"Mrs. Currao helps me a lot and she's a funny person." ~Angel T.

"Mr. Mott, Ms. Marcus, and Mrs. Esslinger are all awesome in their own way." ~Allie A.

"Ms. Pritchard is a very creative person. I liked when we made a three-sided box in ceramics class. She's a patient teacher." ~Trey S.

"I'm Mrs. Trombetta's favorite. She's really awesome and she has cute kids." ~Emilee D.

"Mrs. Esslinger (A.K.A. Ms. Corey) is funny!" ~Joe V.

"Mr. Mott has funny stories and he helps me when I ask him to not just when he wants to." ~Robert L.

"Mr. Curtis has a jolly personality and his classroom is always inviting. I learned a lot from him my sophomore year and I still continue to have conversations with him." ~Sarah P.

"Ms. Pritchard is a wonderful teacher and an amazing friend and is always there for you if you need help." ~Susan

"I like Mr. Hurlburt because he is fun and he helps me a lot in class and he always tells me to stay on task. We know some of the same songs and every time I tell him one, he already knows it and then he will laugh if it is a certain kind, and he is just a good guy, teacher and friend." ~Keigan C.

"Ms. Marcus and Mrs. Digan both make learning a subject fun. It doesn't always feel like work when we have to do work." ~Amanda G.

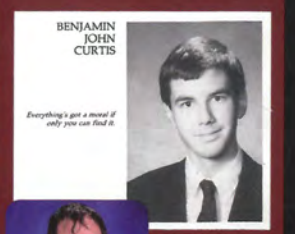

"Mr. Svoboda's stories are entertaining and he is very wise. He comes across as the grandfather of my class that knows everything and I'm convinced he's a robot." ~Sarah P.

"Ms. Papandrea (music) has an amazing laugh and can always find a way to make you smile. She gives amazing hugs, and goes as far as possible to help someone whether it's in or out of school and I have a very special bond with her." ~Raleigh M.

"Charlie and Josh do so much to keep the school clean. They work hard and pay attention to the little things like filling the dents in the walls, mopping the floors and picking up the trash that is left on the ground. Thank you for taking good care of the school!" ~Jade R.

Rock Climbing Club

Clubs and activities have always been strong traditions here at Proctor. They're great opportunities to make friends or develop a new hobby.

Clubs and Activities

Advisor: Tiffany Esslinger

Members: Joe Valerio, Meredith Parker, Gabe Parker, Allie Almond, and Liana Hall. Missing from photo: Solomon Parker.

A group of HS students whose initiative is to spread awareness, assist in the community and to improve school climate. They sponsor Red Ribbon Week activities, an all-school Family Feud game, food baskets for people in the community, and other acts of philanthropy.

National Honor Society

Advisor: Alena Digan

Members: Sarah Pecor, Arielle Oechsle, Erica May, Amanda Gates, Grace Tate, Emma Shaw, Meredith Parker, and Isabel Valerio.

Students are selected for this group based on scholarship, service, leadership, and character. As a group they do three service activities: Dr. Seuss day for P.E.S., the penny war for leukemia research, and the Red Cross blood drive. Each member must complete a minimum of ten volunteer hours.

Advisors: Madeline Pritchard, Ben Curtis, and Christine Papandrea

Members: Jasmine Traverse, Quinn Duggan, Zach DeRemer, Dezirea Traverse, Jade Rivers, Jenna Davine, Rachel Moody, Maggie McKearin, Cassidy Langlois, Al Ward, and Cole Nace. Missing from photo: Briana Wink, Susan Atwood, Zach Stuhlmüller, and Arielle Oechsle.

This version of Alice in Wonderland is inspired by the Cheshire Cat's observation that Alice must be mad, otherwise she wouldn't be in Wonderland. Theater is focusing on the components of acting and developing skills and knowledge of the art form.

Student Assembly

Advisors: Madeline Pritchard, Tiffany Esslinger, Sarah Marcus

Members: Joe Valerio, Meredith Parker, Gabriel Parker, Allie Almond, and Liana Hall. Missing from photo: Amanda Reynolds, and Solomon Parker.

Student-lead assembly has been a great opportunity for not only the students creating and presenting, but the school as a whole. The assemblies positively enhance the PHS environment and the school spirit challenges have been a great addition to the overall climate of the building.

High School Peer Leaders

Advisor: Gregory Mott

Members: Arielle Oechsle, Cody Lafayette, Meredith Parker, Emma Shaw, Susan Atwood, Sarah Pecor, Erica May, Kiersten Williams, Grace Tate, Isabel Valerio, Joe Valerio, and Jacob Perkins.

Each student is assigned a country and a world issue. Students research their country's view on the issue and write a paper on the solution their country would support. Students with the same world issue debate among each other then countries align to create a master solution.

Rock Climbing

Advisor: Alena Digan

Members: Jade Rivers, and Emilee Dupuis

Rock climbing is a team sport in which climbers earn points based on the difficulty of their climbs.

H.O.B.Y

Advisor: Gregory Mott

Members: Amanda Reynolds and Liana Hall.

Juniors are selected to attend a conference that strengthens student leadership.

Magic The Gathering

Advisors: Anthony Buehler, Alena Digan, Patty Ryan, and Kristin Hagenbarth.

Members: Rick Cummings-Lagrove, Trey Strickland, Briana Wink, and Zachary Stuhlmüller.

This club is a student-led group that aims to have fun and learn fair sportsmanship. Magic is a card game where players build their own decks and challenge each other.

Track

Member: Briana Wink

In the fall of 2017, Briana placed first in her seed, running the 5K at the Thetford Woods Trail.

Yale Model United Nation

Art Club

Advisor: Madeline Pritchard

Members: Susan Atwood, Cameron Potter, and Rachel Moody
Art club is a great place for students to express themselves in a supportive and fun setting.

Upward Bound

Members: Emilee Dupuis and Lillian Lang.

Upward Bound is a college readiness program that prepares students for the academic rigor of college.

Phantones

Advisor: Christina Papandrea

Members: Al Ward, Dezirea Traverse, Jade Rivers, Zach DeRemer, Haili Sloan, and Miranda Martin.

Each week, members of the Phantones learn how to harmonize in a group. The songs sung are often chosen by the students.

Student Council

Advisors: Claire Molner and Noah Hurlburt

Members: Robert Lang, Arielle Oechsle, Zach DeRemer, Meredith Parker, Gabriel Parker, Jade Rivers, Kailei Langlois, Liana Hall, Jenna Davine, Dezirea Traverse and Patrick Carroll.

This emblem is used in the 1968 Proctor yearbook.

It has been a tradition for Proctor to march in the parade every October

Parade

Proctor earned second place for best costumed marching unit.

MS. PRITCHARD MS. PAPANDREA, STUDENTS, AND MUSIC BOOSTER PARENTS VOLUNTEERED TO DEVELOP AND BUILD THE FLOAT. THE COSTUMES WERE JUST AS COLORFUL AS THE FLOAT. BOTH WILLY WONKA MOVIES INSPIRED THE COSTUMES WHICH CONSISTED OF THE BAND MEMBERS WEARING RED SHIRTS, WHITE PANTS, GREEN WIGS, WHITE KNEE HIGH SOCKS, RED SUSPENDERS, AND THEIR FACES WERE PAINTED ORANGE.

The Stage Band had the chance to showcase their talent at the concert.

Winter Concert

Miranda Martin was chosen to play at the Green Mountain Districts.

Arielle and Miranda earned the privilege to play at the Castleton University Honors Festival.

What is the funniest part about being in a music class?	What are your plans for your music after high school?	What is your favorite part about being in a music class?	If you created a band what would you name it?	What is your favorite song to play and why?
"The random funny conversations we sometimes have." -Haili	"To continue playing my instrument and learn how to play more of them." - Cassidy	"That it is a form of self-expression. Also the general community surrounding." "My favorite part about music is that we are like a family."-Grace D. "Learning to play better than I did before."-Nick	"Problems." "Stuff and Things." - Nick	"My favorite song to play would be Amazing Grace because it gives me a little challenge to play the higher notes then go down to the lower notes." -Grace Durkee
"When Ms. Papandrea gave Zach D. infinite points." -Zach S.	"Try to get a record deal off originals." -Alexandra		"The Boom Train." -Zach D.

Stage Band

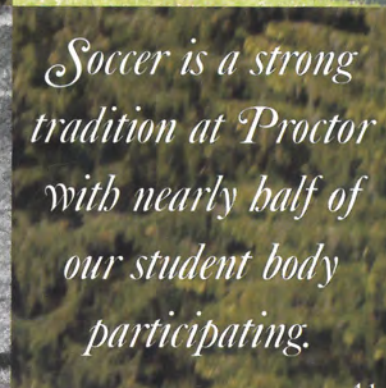

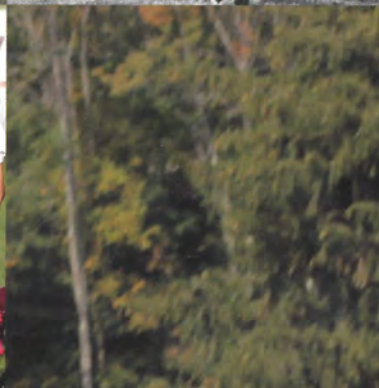

The Stage Band played at the Holiday Hoopla.

They also played during the pep rally.

The Stage Band took a cover photo for a school assembly they played at.

Soccer is a strong tradition at Proctor with nearly half of our student body participating.

Varsity Girls

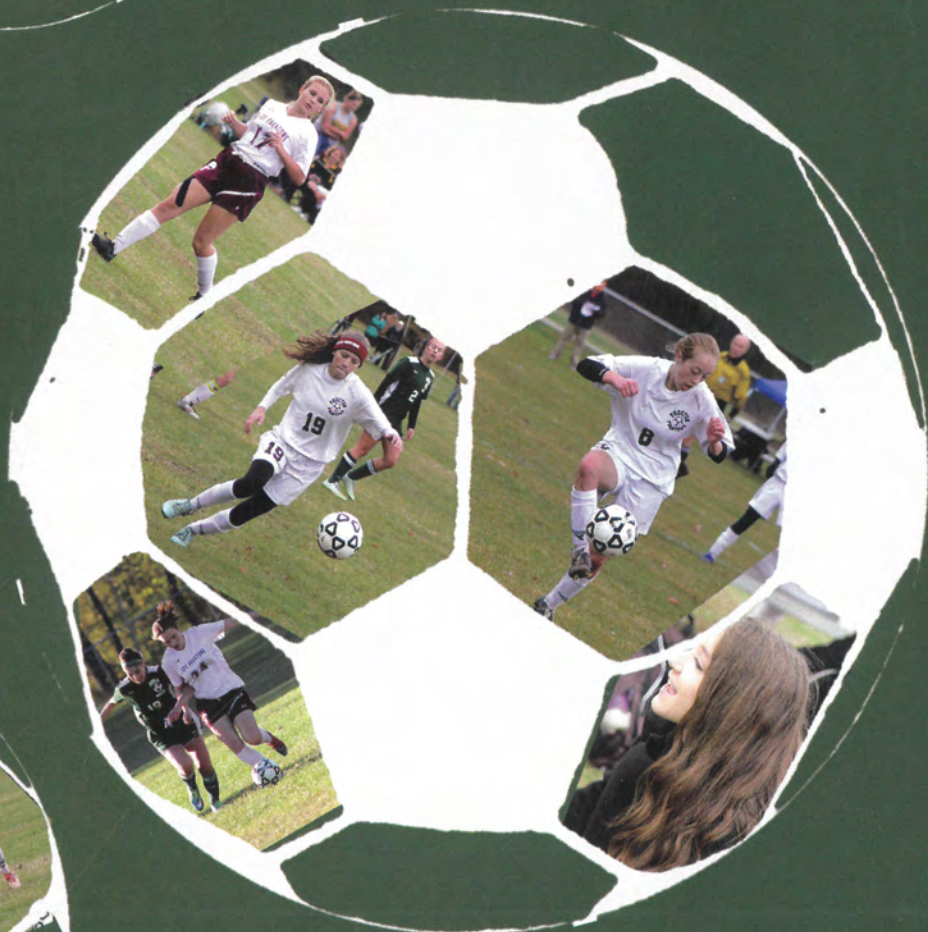

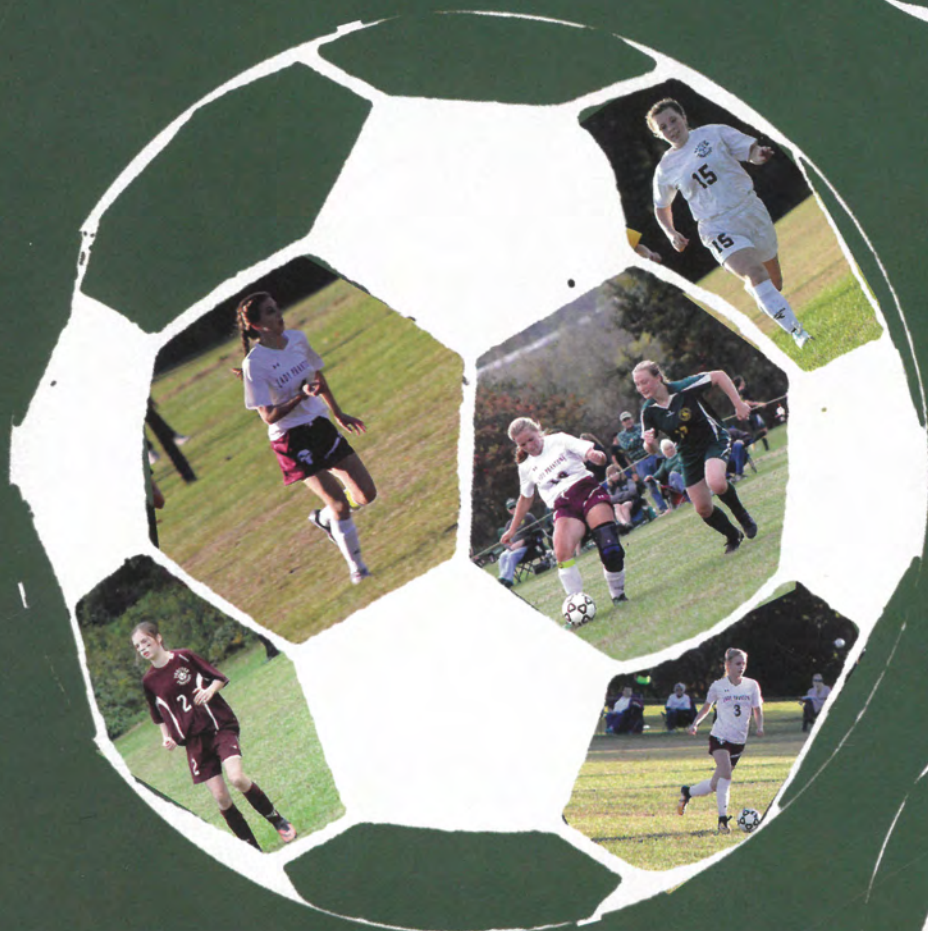

This year's Lady Phantoms were fantastic, hardworking and fun! The ladies compiled a record of fourteen wins, and four losses and made the programs' seventh straight trip to the state finals.

They outscored their opponents ninety one to sixteen. They always had smiles on their faces and came to work every time we were together.

Fans and parents watch eagerly as the Phantom teams strive to beat the Horde

"We go out to breakfast after the last day of doubles."
-Nate Greb

The girls varsity team has a pancake breakfast before playing in the Black River Tournament.

Seniors are photographed with their families before the senior game.

"I always tie my shoes the same and put the left one on first."
-Erica May

During the National Anthem the girls varsity team sends a squeeze down the line while holding hands and swinging arms.

"Our soccer team had a tradition where we would have to have our hair in some type of braids."
-Cassidy Langlois

Sometimes spectators aren't aware of traditions because of the excitement of the sport, but traditions have a special place in the hearts of the players and teams.

The girls varsity team has a scavenger hunt every year.

Greg Roth

Greg has been the ball boy for Proctor since he graduated from PHS. The community loves his sliding catches and appreciates all the work he does.

Arlen Bloodworth

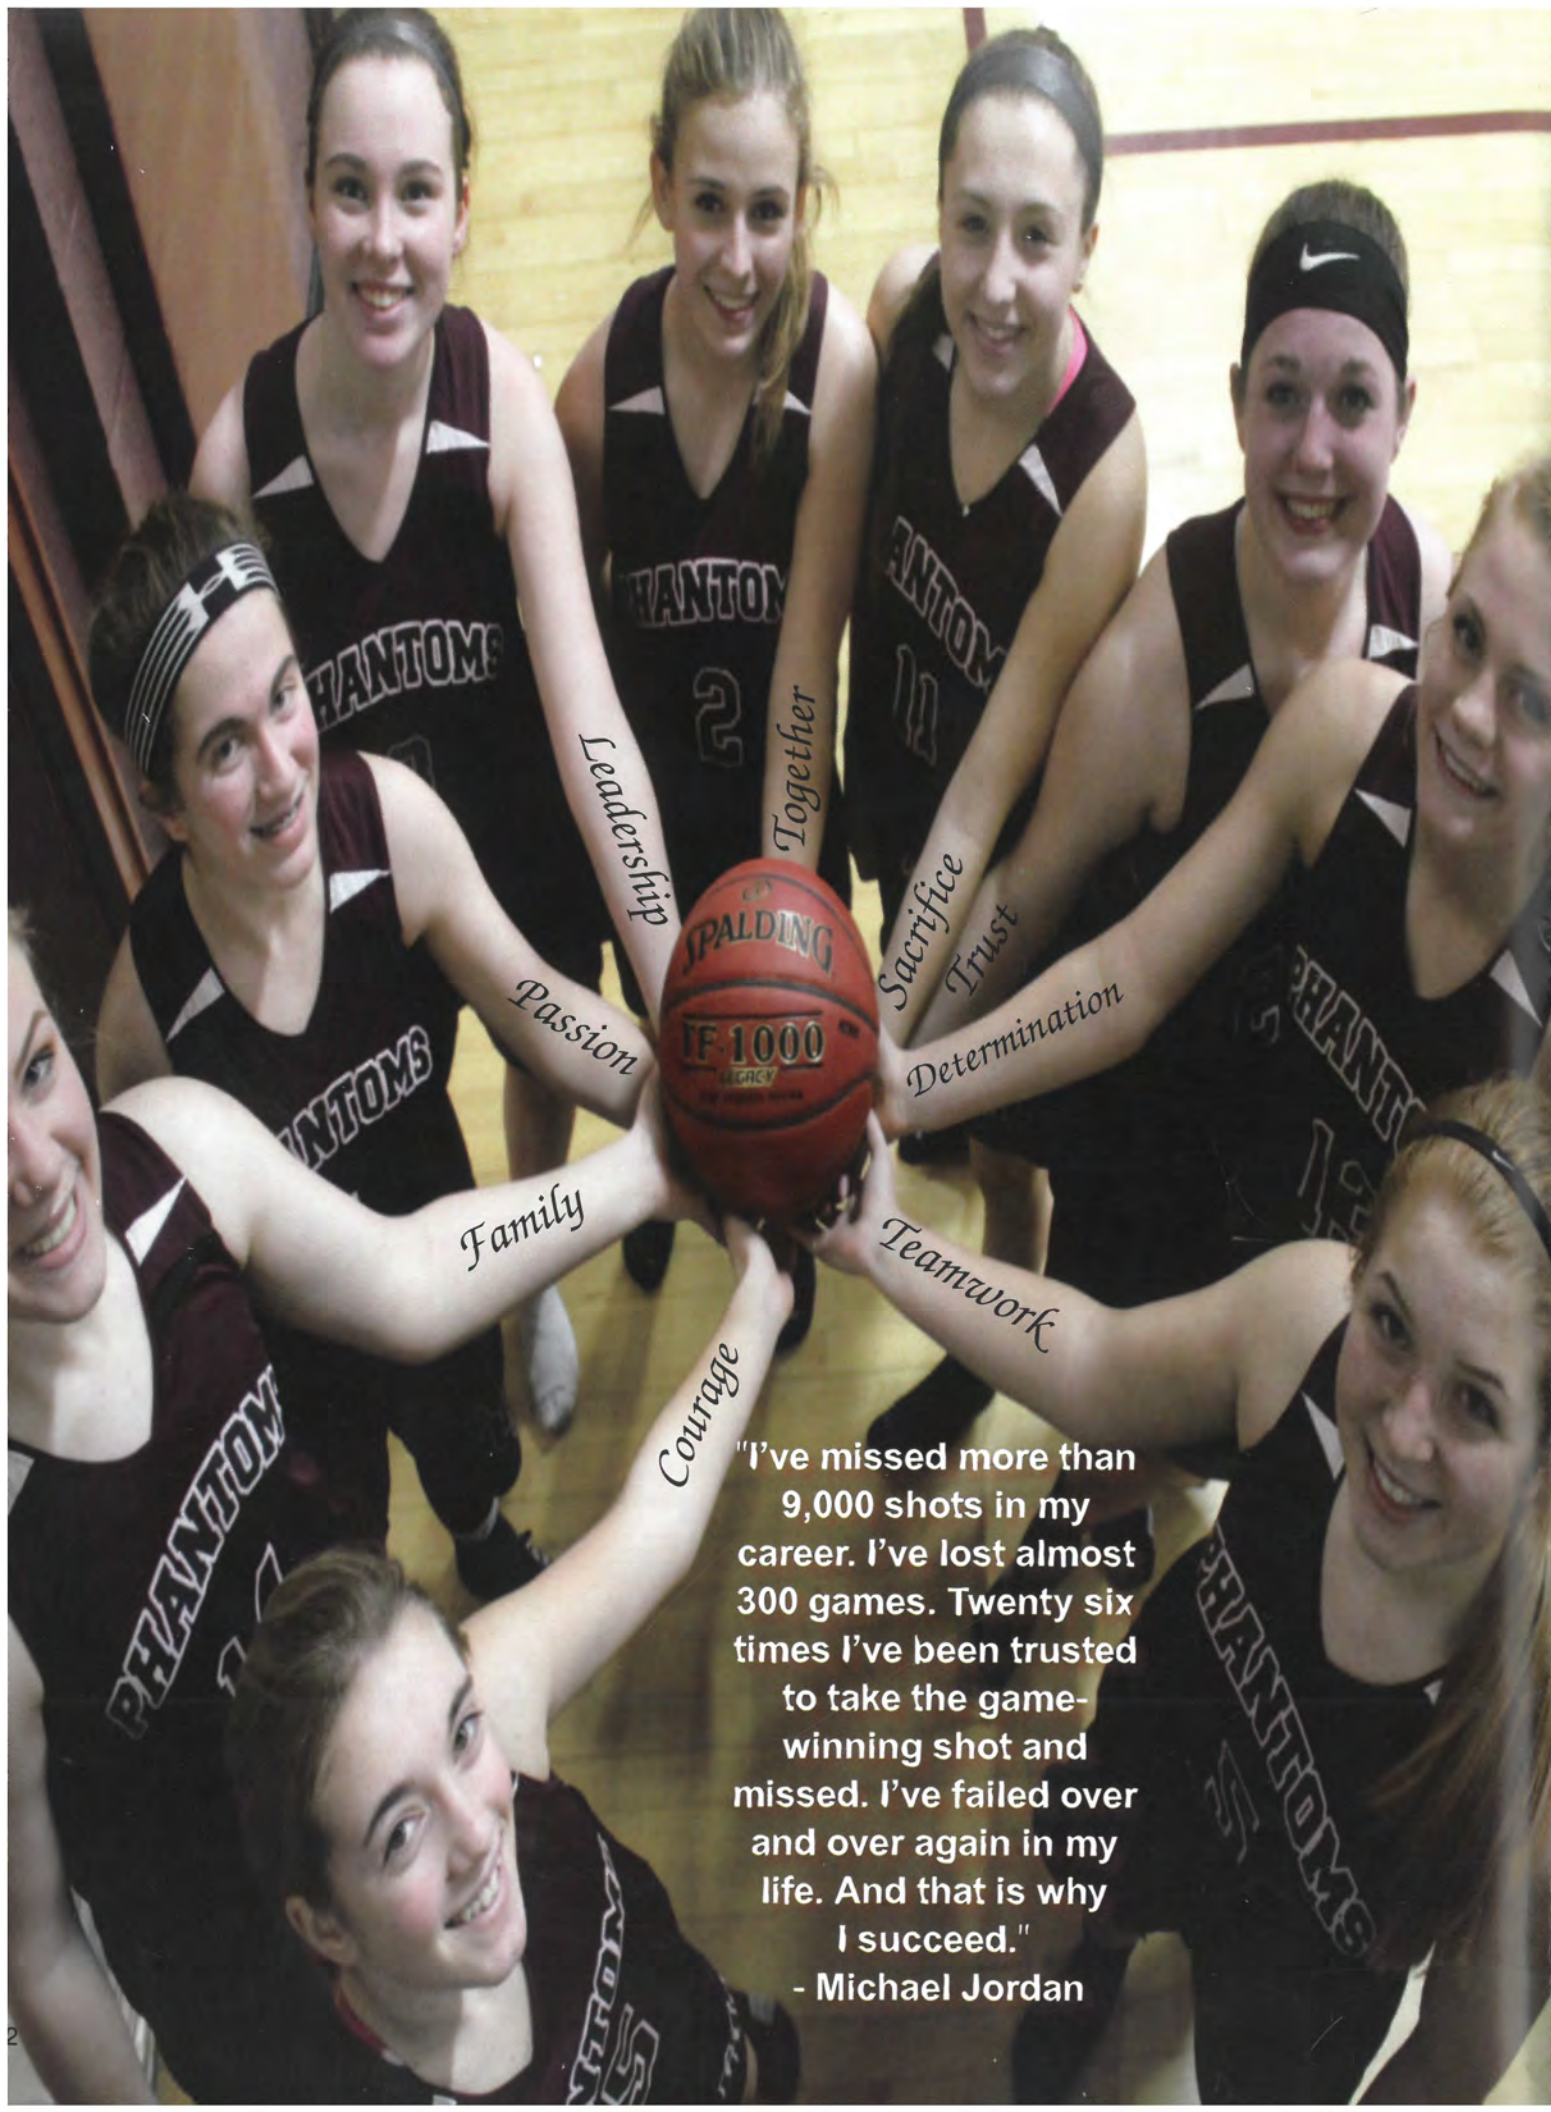

Arlen has recorded the games for many years and donated copies to the players. The community is thankful for all the work he does.

Some of the favorite memories from this past soccer season are:

"Everything about it. It was the best team I've ever been on and I was glad to call them my teammates."
-Chyenne Giddings

"How the whole team got along and was a big family."
-Emma Shaw

"When I scored against West Rutland during homecoming."
-Joe Valerio

"I've missed more than 9,000 shots in my career. I've lost almost 300 games. Twenty six times I've been trusted to take the game-winning shot and missed. I've failed over and over again in my life. And that is why I succeed."

- Michael Jordan

Basketball Traditions

THE BOYS VARSITY TEAM DOES HANDSHAKES BEFORE THE NATIONAL ANTHEM PLAYS.

"I ALWAYS CHEW GUM BEFORE GAMES AND LISTEN TO MUSIC."
- SARAH PECOR

"I SIT IN THE MIDDLE OF THE BENCH WHEN BEING ANNOUNCED."
- ISABEL VALERIO

BEFORE EVERY GAME THE GIRLS VARSITY TEAM LINKS ARMS WHILE THE NATIONAL ANTHEM PLAYS.

WHETHER IT'S A PERSONAL TRADITION LIKE LUCKY SOCKS YOU WEAR TO EVERY GAME OR A TEAM TRADITION LIKE LISTENING TO MUSIC WHILE GETTING READY IN THE LOCKER ROOM TOGETHER, TRADITIONS ARE A SPECIAL PART OF BASKETBALL AT PROCTOR.

Greg Roth

GREG DOES THE BOOK FOR BASKETBALL GAMES AND IS AN ENERGETIC SOURCE OF PHANTOM PRIDE

Arlen Bloodworth

ARLEN RECORDS THE BASKETBALL GAMES AND PROVIDES DVD'S FOR THE PLAYERS.

GREG AND ARLEN HAVE GENEROUSLY SHARED THEIR TIME AND TALENTS WITH THE PHS STUDENTS FOR MANY COMBINED YEARS. THEIR TIRELESS EFFORTS ARE GREATLY APPRECIATED BY THE PHS COMMUNITY.

Junior High Girls Basketball

Coach:
Sean Greb

"One of my favorite traditions about basketball is listening to music before games and practices. It gets the whole team ready and pumped up to play."
-Quinn Duggan

During half time of every home game, spectators can compete to make a half court shot. Deziree made six consecutive half court shots and an overall of thirteen shots this season.

Junior High Boys Basketball

Coach:
Rick Eaton

"One of my favorite team traditions is to blast music on the bus rides. It helps us get ready to play our best."

The 2017-18 Lady Phantoms had a strong season. Led by their lone senior, Isabel Valerio, the youthful Phantoms had a penchant for playing tough defense and shooting the ball well from long range. They had some impressive victories, including a home victory over rival MSJ. With 8 of 9 players returning next year, there is a lot to look forward to with next year's Phantoms.

The 2017-2018 Proctor boys came into this season with the tall task of trying to replace all five starters from last year's team. Led by our 2 senior captains, Jacob B. and Derek, this group got better as the year went on and by playoffs was a dangerous team nobody wanted to face. I was proud of this team for fighting through a ton of adversity & growing pains throughout the roller coaster of a year. They surprised us all and it's a team that Proctor can look back at and be very proud of! I know I'm proud to be their coach.

A tradition of excellence and hard work

Justin Garvey graduated in 1998. He loved to play the game of soccer. While serving in the Army, his convoy was hit. He was an inspiration on and off the field. Chris Chapin graduated in 1984. He joined the Armed Forces soon after high school. He then returned to coach middle school soccer. He later died in combat in 2006.

Fall Festival

Pumpkin

The Fall Festival is a tradition that is loved by the community. People of all ages come to enjoy a beautiful day in the park, visit the vendors and kick-off the autumn season. This year, visitors were treated to an impromptu ukulele concert given by PHS sophomore, Allie Almond.

Proctor 5k

The class of 2018 put on a 5k to raise money for their class.

Riding Ponies

Our Yard provided pony rides for the kids.

"I love going to the Fall Festival and seeing the community coming together."

Blast from the Past

"The strange part is teaching kids whose parents I went to PHS with!"
-Ben Curtis, Social Studies teacher and graduate of 1995

You can change the surroundings or the purpose of a room, but ultimately the students are still the happy, kind, and enthusiastic young people of Proctor.

The areas we travel together have changed in appearance but hold the memories of years past.

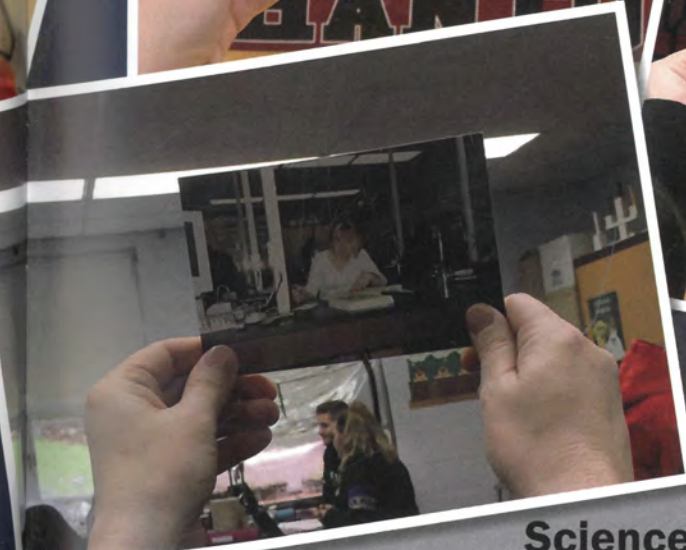

The lockers are maroon now, the walls are white, and awards are proudly displayed above, but it's still a great place to catch your breath before class.

Most of us have visited Claire Molner's nurse's office at one time or another. She's still here caring for students and her office has stood the test of time.

Some things never change. PHS students still find the lunch room, art and music classrooms on the basement floor.

Science Wing

The science classrooms are still where you remember them, but in 2014 they got a major upgrade. Installing new flooring and converting three rooms into two large classrooms, the lab space was expanded, making room for new benches and a greatly improved and more authentic experience for the students.

The library has been enhanced to provide more than just reading materials for students. The Library Media Center also serves as a place where students can 3D print, explore in the Makerspace, take Computer Science classes, and work collaboratively in large groups.

This Year's Feb 15

The following four pages are full of this year's FABULOUS,
most memorable
events!

01 Holiday Hoopla

In December, a student-led assembly was hosted, called the Holiday Hoopla. The assembly was set up as a talk show with Gabe Parker dressed up as the Grinch and Joe Valerio as co-host. The stage band played music and other students recorded it, worked the slides, and directed the audience participation. The audience played games to win points for their class and competed in a lip sync battle. The assembly was a huge success and a lot of fun to watch. The tenth grade had the most points by the end of the day and earned a trophy.

06 Home Run Derby

The class of 2021 held a community fundraiser. People competed to make as many home runs as possible with one bucket of softballs.

02 Romeo & Juliet

The 8th grade English class spent months working to create their own version of Romeo and Juliet, creating the script, props, and the costumes. This was a great opportunity for the class to work together and take part in creating and filming the play- combining acting skills with authentic learning experiences.

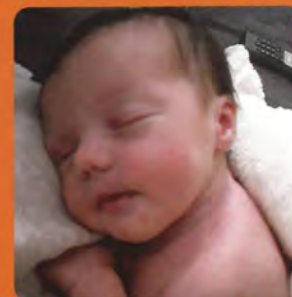

07 Shelburne Museum

Ms Pritchard's Painting I class took a sweet trip to the Shelburne Museum. Eight students visited three attractions including a room full of life-sized candy replicas and a hook rug exhibit that had been inspired by sheep. Almost every rug had a sheep theme, and twenty six of them even had a hidden letter of the alphabet designed into it! The exhibits gave the students "larger than life experience that was fun, exciting and visually stimulating." Ms. Pritchard remarked. Painting 1 student Emilee Dupuis said "I loved the sweet tooth exhibit and when Ms. Pritchard bought us bendy pencils and candy."

03 Teeny Cheney!

Mrs. Cheney has been an English teacher here at PHS for 3 years. This year we are happy to introduce a new member of the Cheney family!

Arianna Marie Cheney
February 15, 2018 at 7:45 am.

08 NHS Induction

New members were inducted into the National Honor Society in January. The ceremony introduces these new members into the society. The current president and four new candidates each light a candle. Each candle represents a specific pillar: knowledge, leadership, scholarship, service, and character. After the candles have been lit, all members take the NHS pledge.

04 Parachutes

Mrs. Digans' physics class learned about gravity by designing parachutes. The model, Emma Shaw dubbed 'Dove', was dropped from the roof. "It ended badly," said Grace Tate. After the first drop, the class had the opportunity to revise their design and drop them again, this time, successfully!

09 Tip Tap Toe P.E. Dance Unit

Mrs. Esslinger's gym classes enjoyed her annual dance unit. The teams of 4-5 students created and performed their original routines.

The teams create their own dances and compete for an ice cream party.

Laci, Jasmine, Keigan and Jacob Brochu used glow sticks to transform themselves into dancing stick figures, adding a fun effect to their dance routine!

05 Crime Scene Van

The crime scene search team, from the Vermont State Police came to visit Ms. Marcus' forensic class. They brought a van with the supplies they used for collecting evidence at crime scenes. Students learned about crimes in Vermont and how the scenes are processed. The students wore the suits the CSI team wear when they process crime scenes.

10 Spread the Love

The Peer Leaders delivered cookies attached to positive messages to encourage students and staff feel good about themselves.

11 Pie a Teacher

In October the Student Council hosted a fundraiser to support hurricane relief. This past hurricane season the U.S. was devastated by three major hurricanes: Harvey, that tore through Texas, Irma, which struck mainly Florida, and finally Maria, which devastated Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Ms. Molner, Student Council advisor, said the event was a success and the total raised was $190.25.

Mr. Hurlburt and Mrs. Digan are good sports for a good cause.

12 Red Ribbon

This year Student Council held an assembly in October about enjoying life's natural highs. Tuesday and Wednesday we wore red as a symbol of our promise to stay drug-free. Thursday we had guest speakers visit. One woman talked about how addiction had affected her life and how even after ten years of recovery it still does. We also had an officer come in to talk about impaired driving and the risks involved.

13 Poetry Out Loud

In February students from each grade competed in the annual Poetry Out Loud contest at PHS. The student body listened in earnest as finalists passionately recited poems they had rehearsed for many weeks in advance. The winner, Sarah Pecor, with her dynamic reading of Dear Reader, advanced to represent PHS in the state-wide semi-final on March 8th. TJ Pecor and Allie Almond placed in second and third place respectively.

14 Pie a Senior

This year the senior class held a fundraiser to raise money for their senior trip. Seniors were pied by both students and teachers. Alexis Peer raised the most money and was pied a whopping FIVE times!

15 U Matter

In January Mrs. Ackerman took students ranging from 7th to 11th grade to a program called UMatter. Hosted by the Center for Health and Learning in Waterbury, UMatter students learned how to handle stress, have positive reactions, spread suicide prevention awareness, and how to help a friend. With these skills students can better problem- solve and handle real life situations. One of the students, Sarah Pecor, recalls the event as "Very educational and useful in everyday situations."

Alexis Peer

Alexis, we can't believe you are graduating and the time is here!! It seems like yesterday we were dropping you off for your first day of kindergarten.

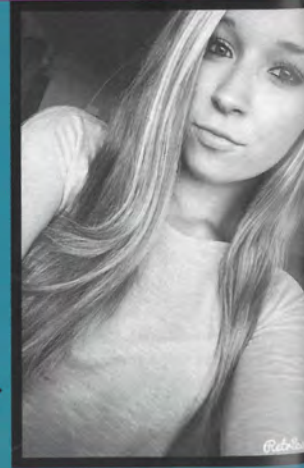

Where has the time gone?

You have grown up to be a beautiful woman inside and out. Dad and I are so very proud of you. We know if you stay determined you can do whatever you put your mind to.

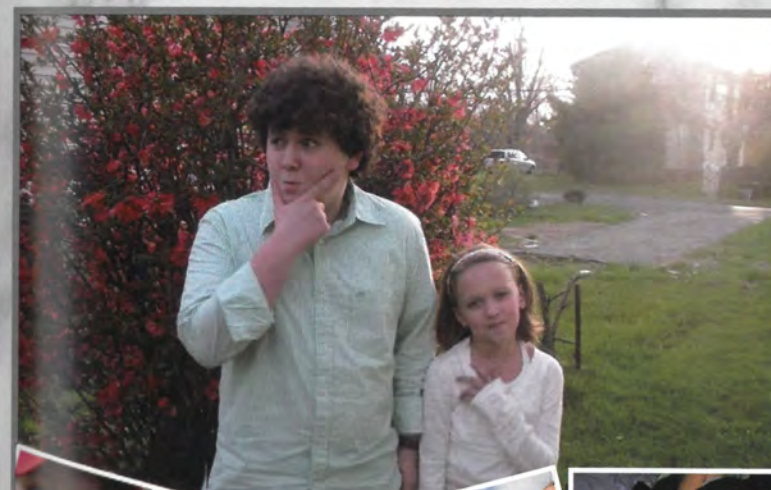

Stay focused, and true to yourself.
Don't let anyone bring you down.
Know that we are here for you, always.
We love you to the moon and back.

the small things...

and always remember
to smell the flowers.

We love you to the moon and back.
Love, Mom and Dad

Emma,
One day your dad said let's have a baby girl and so we did. We assumed we had the most amazing baby girl because her pouty lips looked as if they were kissed by the angels. Although our assumptions may have been true, we could have never known how many blessings you were going to lay upon us. Being the baby sister would not be easy for her. She would always be keeping up with her big brother and trying her best to surpass him; challenging him and freaking him out. Compared to Luke, you were our wild child. Little did we know the joke was on us, because then came Tobias.

Your heart has always been big and kind for people and for animals alike. Movies had to be screened for pet passings (damn you, Anchorman, and Marley & Me). As sad as I was that you were heartbroken, I gladly cuddled you and wiped away your tears. I squeezed you until you forgot all about that ole' yellow pup, wishing you would never grow old in my arms.

You care about the underdog and people in need. I have seen you reach out to people who have wanted to feel supported in one way or another.

Outreached a hand to an opponent you knocked down on the field. Through your years, you have forged so many strong relationships with your teachers, the administration, and your peers.

You love your family deeply. Forgiving us often and understanding our faults. Always keep connections strong, continue looking out for the little people. It will forever make you feel better in the end.

Even with all these deep qualities, sarcasm and humor is your forte. I haven't found many funnier than you. Always find humor in all that you do. In school you have always worked tirelessly to do your best. Unlike your parents who would invent sicknesses just to avoid a test. You never shy away from a task. I guess you're just not that kind of gal. We have never had to worry about you. Scratch that- we always worry about you. Not because we know you won't do well. You will. No doubt. No matter what you do or where you go in life, you will do amazing things because you are amazing inside and out. You'll do amazing things because you give your all when you do what you do. You have made us so proud. From the moment we laid eyes on your precious little angelic face, we felt it- that innate, heart- penetrating, overwhelming sense of pride, of the good things you will do. From that day forth, we would wake up every day just to see the amazing things you would do for the day. And of course to worry about you. That will never change. But here's the thing- you deserve it all and nothing less, so go get it. We love you Emma Bean.

Emma Shaw

Luke was always holding our hands following the rules and you were ready to break free and run. Don't run too far please. Mommy and Daddy will miss you too much.

Thank you for being a strong, loving, and wonderful role model for your baby sister, Tatum, and baby brother, Tobias. They love you and will be lost when you leave for college. Especially with no soccer to go watch.

Amanda

Who has two thumbs and took 2k pictures at one soccer game? This girl! Thank you for your willingness to offer both your time and talents outside of the classroom and for contributing your design talents throughout this book!

Yearbook Staff

Creating this yearbook was difficult and stressful at times but you brought so many days of joy and humor to the classroom that lightened our anxieties. Your humor made the hard work more bearable. Thank you for always bringing your best self to class and for being so thoughtful in the creation of your pages.

Lucy

Shot 2k photos at one soccer game

I promise you, sometime in the near future, someone will ask you "What experience do you have?" and you can proudly respond "I was in yearbook! I have experience as a writer, editor, graphic designer, and I'm a top-notch photographer. I have proven ability in the sale, marketing, and operation of a business with a responsible budget.

I'm confident working both individually and collaboratively. I can communicate about my work intelligently and I'm eager to share my knowledge with others. I pace myself to meet deadlines, can meaningfully communicate with supervisors and can offer and receive criticism constructively."

Don't ever undervalue the experiences you had working as a yearbook student. Embrace them. Remember the hard work, the deadlines, the shared time together and the fun we had working as a team.

Meredith

Such a keen eye for taking dynamic photos and never afraid to go the extra mile to get just the right shot. Thank you for putting in all those extra hours to help make this book a masterpiece!

Remember when Lucy wanted to see something terrible. Mere didn't save her work. When you all took shifts being sick and absent. You were scared of Ad Day. You had to enter a classroom and were afraid of the teacher. Late night and early morning texts asking for help. Watching Ed. Targeting transferable skills. Renaming thousands of photos.

A creative force to be reckoned with! You started out unsure if you had a creative bone in your body and shocked yourself when you designed dynamic and delightful spreads. Although you only spent half the year with us, you have beautiful pages to look at and be very proud of.

Emilee

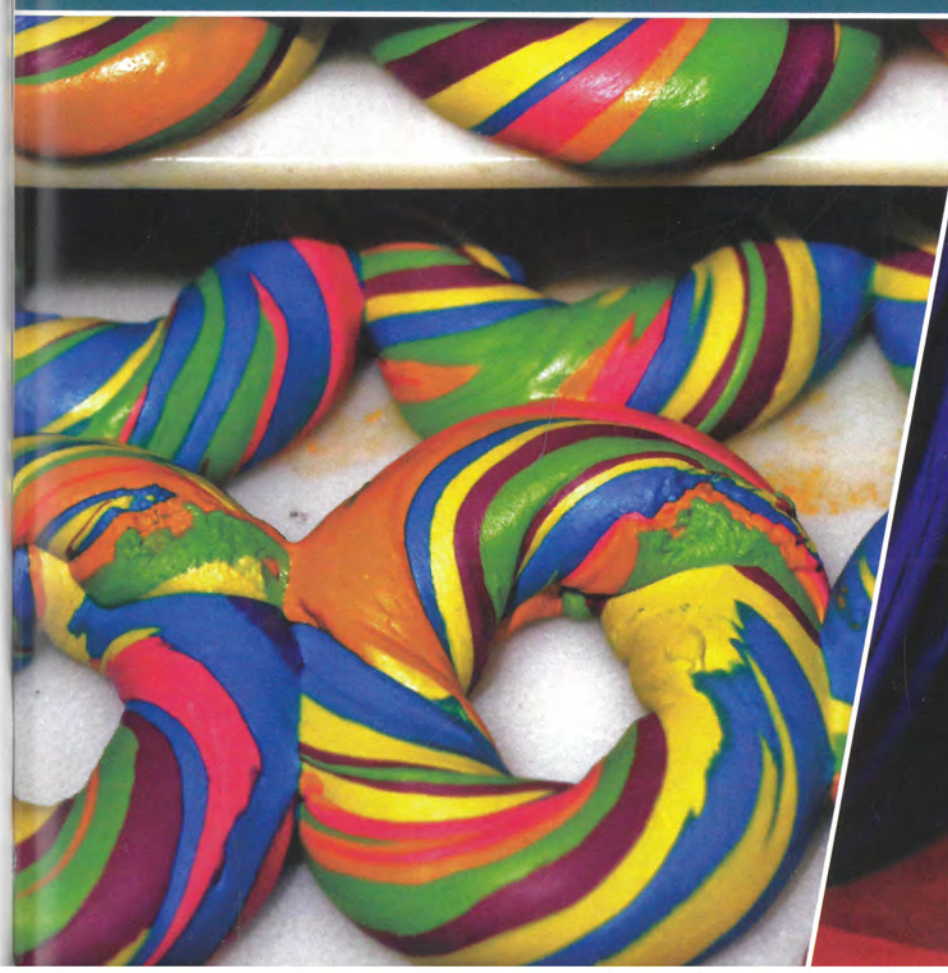

Our fearless fact-checker, making sure we were thorough and kept us from missing something critical in our process. Thank you for helping us put together such an important piece of PHS history in a thoughtful and comprehensive way.
